

Kalangos Foundation provided cardiac surgery to a young Ukrainian woman with the help of Lifeline Hellas.

At the "Euroclinic" hospital, Professor Dr. Afksendiyos Kalangos successfully operated on Mrs. Katerina Ziniak, a 28-year-old Ukrainian woman, as part of the second heart operation sponsored by the humanitarian organization Lifeline Hellas and funded by Mr. Grigoris and Mrs. Katerina Stasinopoulos.

The operation took place within the framework of the support offered by Lifeline Hellas to children and young people from Ukraine during the war.

Three additional heart operations will be provided by Lifeline Hellas' donor friends for Ukrainian children and young people.

Dr. Antzi Margariti Andrews, vice president of Lifeline Hellas, visited Katerina before and after the procedure and presented her with gifts on the organization's behalf.

The Royal Highness Crown Princess Katherine of Serbia and donors Grigoris and Katerina Stasinopoulou sent their gifts, spoke with Katerina by phone, and wished her a good recovery and every happiness in her new life.

Also present was the Counselor of the Embassy of Ukraine in Greece, Mr. Serhii Kravets.

Lifeline Hellas expresses gratitude to Mrs. Emmanuela Moussama, the Crowne Plaza Athens - City Center hotel, Mrs. Irimi Vassilopoulou, and the Saint George Lycabettus Boutique Hotel for sponsoring Katerina's hospitality.
